

Festivals Australia grant recipients—National summary of projects— Round 14 February 2022

| State / territory | Recipient | Project title | Project description | Festival | Amount funded ($) (excl. GST) |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------|--|---|---|--------------------------------|
| NSW | Four Winds Concerts Inc | Wali Yangga—Return to singing | Inter-cultural collaborations between Indigenous songs, classical instrumentalists and singers, school children and contemporary musicians in the form of two massed choirs singing newly commissioned works. | Garindja Bunaan: Four Winds Spring Youth Music Festival | $39,492 |
| NSW | Dashville | The History of Music, In Words. | An exhibition on Australian music history and literature, with a focus on Australian roots, country and folk music, and on the evolution of Indigenous country music. | Dashville Skyline—Cosmic Country Weekender | $22,600 |
| NSW | Byron Bay International Film Festival | Outdoor XR Activation | A Dome for Outdoor XR (extended reality) Activation, with a collection of projection and interactive areas that will connect the audience with world class XR content and provide a venue for artist and filmmakers to explore and showcase events. | Byron Bay International Film Festival | $71,500 |
| NSW | Moogahlin Performing Arts Inc | Serpent Water Stories, International Artists Exchange | A movement, music, and language work responding to two cultural stories from Nipissing (Canada) and Murrawarri (Australia) peoples, culminating in a work-in-progress performance at Baiame’s Ngunnhu Festival. | Baiame’s Ngunnhu Festival | $80,000 |
| QLD | Range of Life Pty Ltd | Project Drag Run-a-way | Two half-day workshops creating unique drag personas. Followed by an evening pageant runway performance where winner is crowned The Rangebow Festival Glambassador! | The Rangebow Festival | $15,100 |
| QLD | Empire Theatres Pty Ltd | Megafauna—Dead Puppets Society | Puppet making workshops and an appearance by the giant Diprotodon at scheduled times. | Thrive on Arts 2022 | $10,000 |

July 2022

| State / territory | Recipient | Project title | Project description | Festival | Amount funded ($) (excl. GST) |
|-------------------|---|---|--|---|--------------------------------|
| QLD | Heart of Gold International Short Film Festival | Front Yard at Heart of Gold International Short Film Festival 2022 | A hub for conversation, education and entertainment at the entrance to the Heart of Gold International Short Film Festival 2022 featuring music, dance, Q&As, panels, community storytelling, and artistic discussion. | Heart of Gold International Short Film Festival 2022 | $19,100 |
| SA | Price Progress Association Inc | Engage through Art Concert | A performance by four Indigenous and non-Indigenous artists during the closing ceremony concert. Performances are by the Narungga Aboriginal Progress Association; the Yorke band; Glenn the Junk Man; and The Amazing Drumming Monkeys. | Two-day community celebration to commemorate the town of Price proclamation date. | $2,600 |
| TAS | Clarence City Council | Takara Clarence ('Walking Clarence') | Exploration of First Nations history within the Clarence municipality, combining verbal storytelling and a musical score for a jazz orchestra. It will be presented live on stage, as a live recording session and a walking tour during the festival. | Clarence Jazz Festival (CJF) | $47,180 |
| TAS | Artology | Squid Theory | A water-based movement piece and installation, using a boat, sails, projection, animated image, and sound design to deliver a place-based community work. | Inaugural annual squid festival in Triabunna | $57,500 |
| VIC | Castlemaine State Festival | CSF 2023: Free Opening Night Concert: Frente! and KIAN live | Free gala concert with live-streaming, to officially open the festival, showcasing two Australian acts; Frente! And KIAN. | Castlemaine State Festival | $63,909 |
| VIC | WinterWild | Wild Feast | A gastronomic hub where audiences can experience curated food, workshops and live performances. | The Winterwild Festival | $39,528 |
| WA | Fremantle Biennale Inc | First Lights | A place-responsive, choreographed drone light show delivered across regional Western Australian locations. | The Fremantle Biennale | $61,650 |
| WA | The York Festival | Two Mountains Dreaming | The opening event for The York Festival 2022, featuring Aboriginal artists telling the story of the local Ballardong Noongar people through song, dance, sound, and lighting installations. | The York Festival | $107,410 |