

Festivals Australia grant recipients— National summary of projects—Round 10 February 2020

State / territory	Recipient	Project title	Project description	Festival	Amount funded ($) (excl GST)
NSW	BEST Employment Ltd.	Unstop-Ability: Journey	Four artists will work with participants drawn from disability support services, and Aboriginal and youth groups to create three performances incorporating dance, music, song and drama.	Inverell Sapphire City Festival	$27,156
VIC	Lorne Sculpture Exhibition Inc.	Lorne Lode: Sampling the Core	Artist Carmel Wallace will create a colonnade of sculptural core samples, exploring elements of the botanical, geological and social history of Lorne and its hinterland.	Lorne Sculpture Biennale 2021	$17,500
TAS	Ten Days on the Island Ltd.	mapali	The opening event for the festival celebrates the dawn of day with fire, dance and other performing arts. It will be created by Aboriginal artist David mangenner Gough.	Ten Days on the Island	$95,000
NT	Injalak Arts	The Mankarre Project	Workshops will be held in song, music and dance, led by ceremony leaders and facilitated by ethnomusicologist, Reuben Brown culminating in a performance at the festival.	Stone Country	$57,300
NSW	South East Arts (NSW) Inc.	Miru Garu (Dream Sky)	The evening component of the Giiyong Festival featuring digital projections, soundscapes, landscape lighting and music.	Giiyong Festival 2020	$35,000

State / territory	Recipient	Project title	Project description	Festival	Amount funded ($) (excl GST)
QLD	Torres Shire Council	'Preservation of Culture' initiative	Community members will recreate traditional villages from the five island clusters of the Torres Strait providing a 'celebration area' for performances.	Winds of Zenadth Cultural Festival	$55,000
NSW	Griffith Regional Theatre	Sunshine Super Girl World Premiere Celebration	A new theatre work by Yorta Gurnakai writer-director Andrea James, celebrating the life and achievements of Wiradjuri sporting legend Evonne Goolagong-Cawley.	Yarruwala Wiradjuri Arts and Cultural Festival	$50,000
WA	FORM - building a state of creativity Inc.	Mogus Selatan (working title)	A residency and solo exhibition by Indonesian artist Mulyana. His installation will reference Port Hedland's marine ecology through a knitting and crochet installation.	South Festival (working title)	$35,700
WA	Big hART	Songs for Peace Prison Program	A series of music workshops delivered to Roebourne Regional Prison inmates who will work alongside professional artists to write and record their own songs for performance in the prison.	Songs for Peace	$35,000
SA	Adelaide Film Festival	ADL Film Fest: Curate Your Own Film Festival	Four emerging regional film curators will be mentored and provided professional development opportunities to produce a mini international film festival in their respective communities.	Adelaide Film Festival	$25,738
NSW	Spaghetti Circus	Mullum Circus Festival National Training Program	A four day immersive training program including over 30 circus masterclasses. New performances will be showcased at The Mullum Circus Festival.	The Mullum Circus Festival	$42,400
QLD	Southern Cross Soloists Music Ltd	2020 Bangalow Music Festival: 'Maps and Journeys: the world's first astronomers'	First Nations composers Brenda Gifford and Eric Avery will work with didgeridoo soloist Chris Williams, the Southern Cross Soloists, ABC Classic presenter Kristian Chong and First Nations astronomy expert, Karlie Noon to create two new works.	Bangalow Music Festival	$24,816

State / territory	Recipient	Project title	Project description	Festival	Amount funded ($) (excl GST)
SA	Hahndorf Winter Lantern Festival Inc.	Hahndorf Winter Lantern Festival workshop program	A visual arts and music workshop program. Indigenous artist David Booth will work with local Indigenous youth to design a fire mural and local artists will teach children to make lanterns.	Hahndorf Winter Lantern Festival	$12,000
VIC	The Village Festival of New Performance Inc.	The Game	A large-scale, interactive community competition reinventing theatre sports which will engage community groups within Benalla.	The Benalla Festival	$26,460